Learning Experiences Provided In Collaboration With

THE HUMPHREY// GROUP

We develop leaders who inspire.

Because when you're inspired, you go out and inspire others. And the outcome is leadership. Inspired communication energizes people, ignites action, sparks connection, and unleashes human potential.

At The Comvia Group, our goal is to help professionals inspire when they communicate. Through communication training, leaders become more self-aware, collaborative, inclusive, and engaging; enabling them to drive their teams' achievement and change.

Your group has worked hard to understand how we want our leaders to communicate, and then tailored programs to meet our specific needs for those skills.

Leadership Communication Training

Inspiring communication is the key that unlocks the leadership potential in all of us. Our leadership communication solutions are centered around three key skillsets essential to all leaders:

- Reflection – Looking inward to build self-awareness and an authentic leadership identity.
- Connection – Building trust and strong relationships.
- Persuasion – Inspiring action through persuasive communication.

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Training

Diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) is a core leadership skill that should be a part of every leadership strategy. Our DEI training solutions are focused on two key components: creating an inclusive environment and empowering equity seeking groups.

- All Leaders – Everyone benefits when leaders learn how to use communication to create inclusive, supportive environments.
- Employment Equity Groups – Provide leaders with the opportunity to develop new skills in a safe, trusting environment where they can connect with, and learn from their peers.
